Hi!

about me:

I am 27 yrs old. I'm originally from Chicago, IL. Moved to Wilmington when I married my husband 5 years ago. I have always dreamed of teaching since I was a little girl. I have always believed that you can make a change in teaching young ones. I was homeschooled from 8th grade-high school, and hope I can make a special impact on your little ones in my classroom. I love exploring, plants, colors, and learning new things!

I am Biligual (spanish). Love nature, and ice skating.
